

Biography

Nora Pareja has 17 years of experience as a litigation paralegal, working in the areas of insurance defence, products and occupiers liability, fire, construction, and personal injury. As a result of working on large, document-intensive files, she has developed expertise in the area of e-discovery and is knowledgeable about several types of litigation support software.

Nora joined Stevens Virgin in January of 2017. She works with E. Craig Watson, senior associate counsel whose work includes acting for plaintiffs and defendants, specializing in the areas of personal injury, business loss claims, construction and general commercial litigation.
