

Biography

Shella Bergen began her career as a paralegal in 2000. Shella has worked in personal injury, on both plaintiff and defence claims, maintaining and organizing files from the beginning of an action to settlement or trial. Her main focus in the last ten years has been in the area of insurance defence litigation.

Shella enjoys working with high complexity cases, analyzing claim file materials and preparing and implementing defence strategies. Her role involves a fast paced plethora of duties including document management, obtaining evidence, preparing pleadings, summarizing evidence and corresponding with clients.

Shella joined Stevens Virgin in 2018. She works with Callum G. Kelly, senior counsel, whose practice primarily involves insurance defence, as well as, product liability, and commercial litigation.
