

Biography

Prior to joining Stevens Virgin, Slavica spent 17 years working closely with some of the top insurance defence litigators in the Lower Mainland. She has extensive experience in case management, document review, including gathering and carefully analyzing evidence, instructing experts and drafting pleadings, application materials, mediation summaries and legal arguments. She also specializes in the preparation of comprehensive medical chronologies in complex personal injury cases. Slavica is passionate about her work and is recognized for her analytical skills and drafting abilities.

Association & Memberships

Member of BCPLA

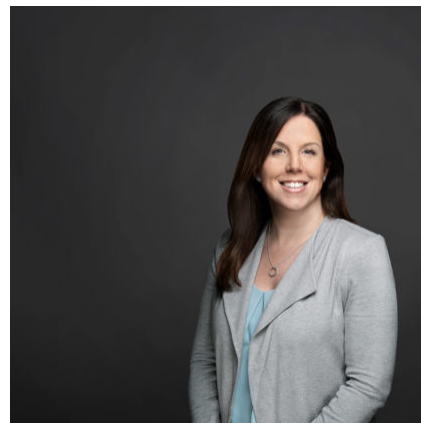

Events/Speaking

Slavica was a speaker at a 2012 CDL Conference on the topic of Medical Terminology and the Art of the Chronology. She also co-chaired the CDL Paralegal Conference in 2016 with Stevens Virgin paralegal Hardip Samra.

Community Involvement

Outside the office, Slavica is an active volunteer in her community of Coquitlam where she has served as an Board Member for her minor hockey association for the past five years. She enjoys spending time with her husband and two active boys.

Slavica is bilingual and is fluent in English and Croatian

Slavica Roche
PARALEGAL

Contact

604.694.2191
sroche@stevensvirgin.com

Practice Areas

Civil Litigation & Appeals
Commercial Litigation
Insurance Defence
Personal Injury

Education

Paralegal Certificate from Capilano University in 2003 as a Dean's List graduate.